Groups of people everywhere at assemblies, games, dances, in the hallways, cafeteria, auditorium. It seems during high school we are all grouped together. There is always someone to depend on and someone to help with decisions.

But after graduation it is time for us to go our separate ways and set out on our own. We no longer can depend on the security that we once found in large groups. We can only rely on the individual knowledge we have gained to reach our specific goals.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL

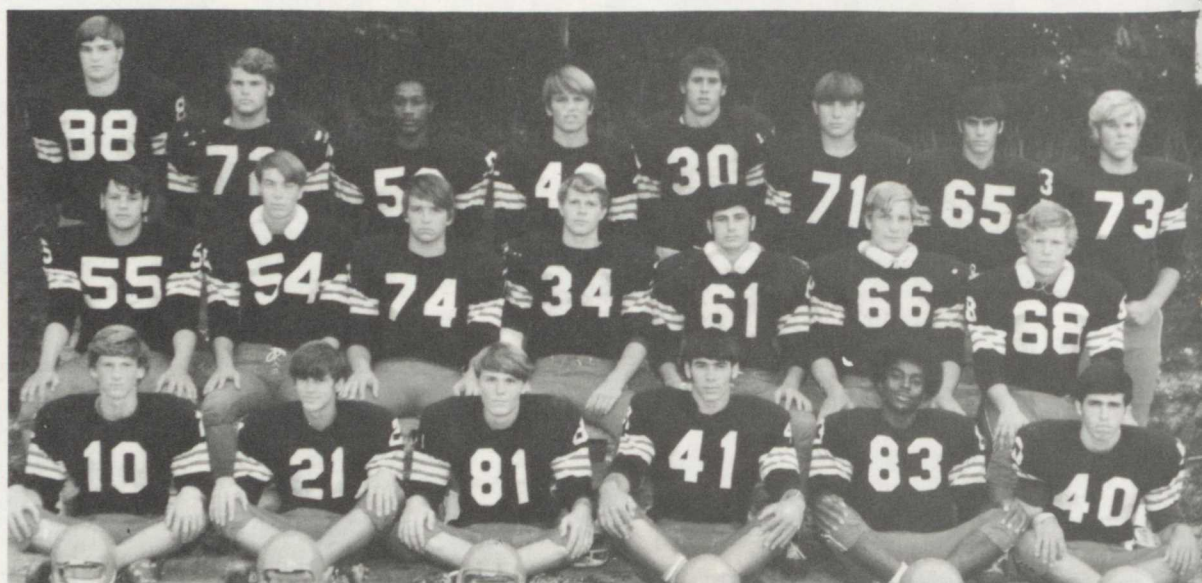

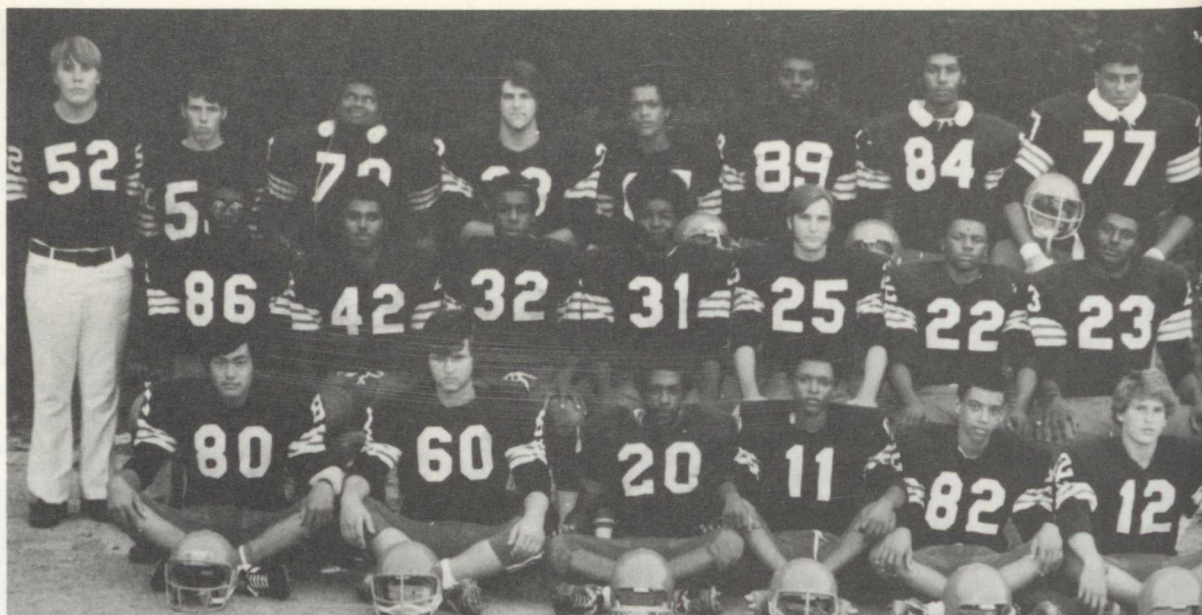

The explosive offensive of the fighting Falcon football squad brought Malabar and Coach Frazier their second winning season in a row. They began the year with wins over Lexington and Clear Fork, but were then knocked to their knees when five of the next six games brought defeat. However, like true competitors, the team rebounded to blast Madison 40 to 0 and defeat Norwalk to finish the season. Numerous injuries to key players continually frustrated the Falcons' efforts for victory. But good teamwork and concentrated effort earned them a satisfying season with five wins and five losses.

Three Falcons received first team Cardinal Conference honors: Bob Crawford, defensive end; Mike McGuire, tight end; and Tim Schmidt, offensive back. Mike Wilkins, Gary Cardwell, Mike Sazdanoff, and Mark Matthews were named honorable mention in the conference.

Seven awards, as selected by the team, were given to outstanding players. On defense, Bob Crawford was named best lineman while Woody Carter and Mark Matthews tied for outstanding back. Offensively, Gary Cardwell and Tim Schmidt tied for best back. Mike McGuire, who also copped first team All-District honors, was named outstanding lineman. Finally, Tim Schmidt received the most valuable player trophy.

The Falcon sophomores finished their season at two wins and seven losses.

Row two: Jamie Brunk, Ed McClure, Gary Nauman, Ed Stockwell, Rodger Loesch. Row three:
Rick Kuhn, manager, Marty Schaaf, Fernando Mata, Coach Joe Romano. Missing, Rodney Loesch, Paul Kanz.

The Malabar cross country squad finished this season with an excellent five win, one loss record. Victories came over Wooster, Ashland, Lexington, Senior High, and arch-foe Madison. The Harriers took second in the varsity and first in the reserve divisions of the Ontario Invitational. They finished second in the Cardinal Conference meet at Wooster and were fourth in the Sectional.

Coach Joe Romano's running attack was spearheaded by Andy Johnson, who finished eighth in both the Sectional and the District, and 23rd in the State. Andy was named Most Valuable Runner. Ed Stockwell was named Most Valuable Sophomore. Rodger Loesch and Jamie Brunk, the two three-year lettermen, were named co-captains. Rodger finished 32nd in the District.

BASKETBALL

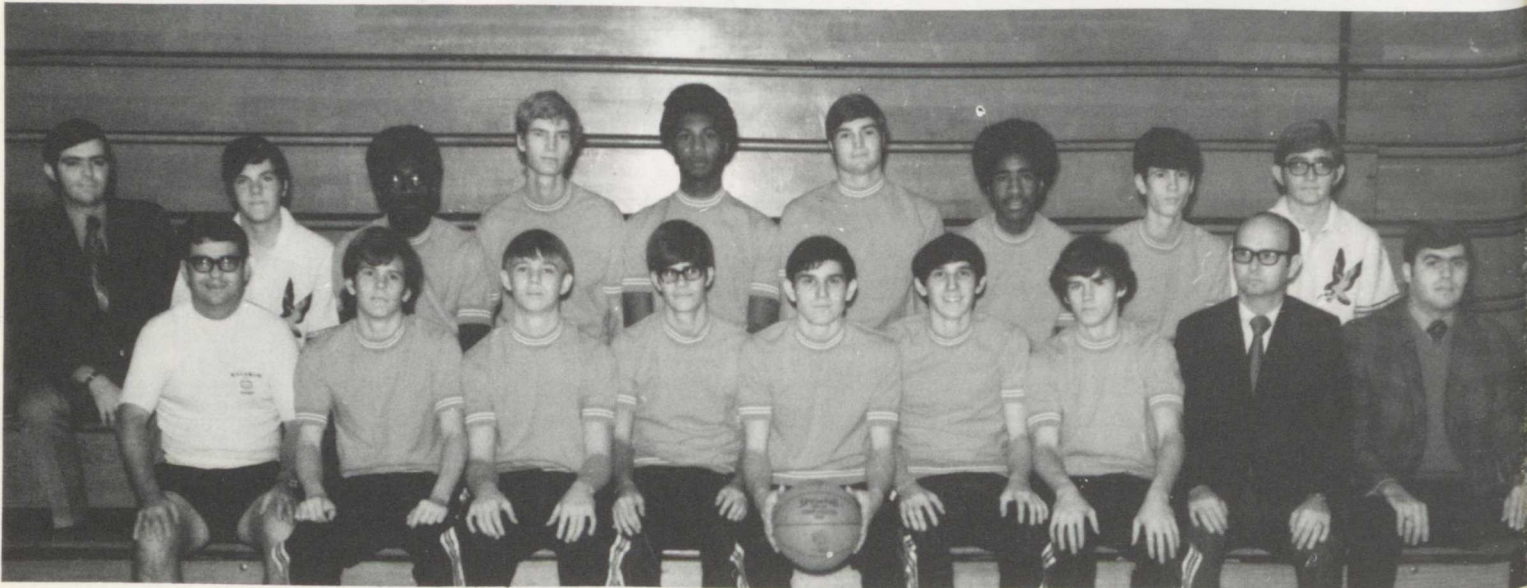

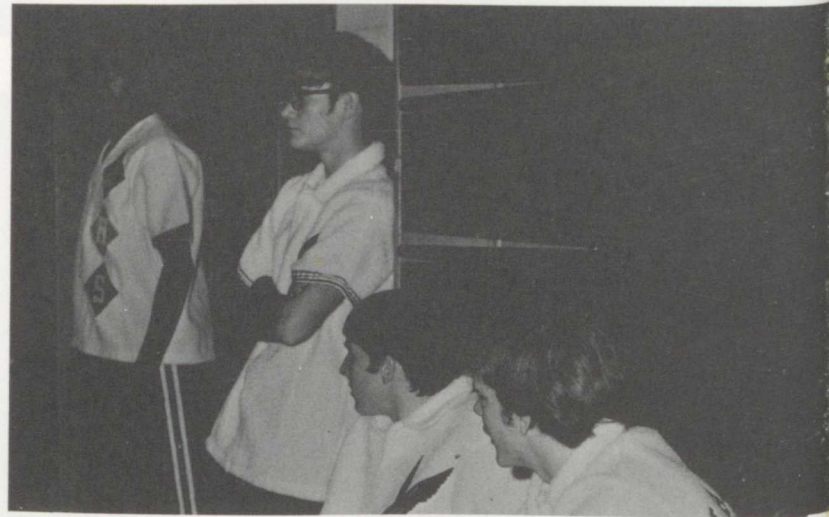

The Falcon basketball squad emerged from the 1971-1972 season with a winning 12 win and 9 loss record. This marked the third consecutive winning season for Malabar since Head Coach Bob Earnest took the helm.

The cagers swept to an excellent first half record of 7 wins and 2 losses, including a 6 to 1 Cardinal Conference mark, good enough for the lead. But four consecutive losses destroyed their chances for their best record ever. Snapping out of their slump, the team battled its way to a tie for third place in the conference and a final 10 win—8 loss regular season mark.

The highlight of the season came along the tournament trail. The Falcons swept to their first sectional title with convincing victories over Madison and Galion. In the District against number-one ranked Celina, a valiant effort fell short as they lost 86-74.

The team was lead by senior co-captains Bob Crawford and Rodney Loesch, seniors Rodger Loesch, Gus Sauter, Mike McGuire, and Gary Cardwell, and junior Mel Hudson.

Coach Bill Swartzmiller's junior Falcons finished with an excellent 14 win—4 loss season.

SWIMMING

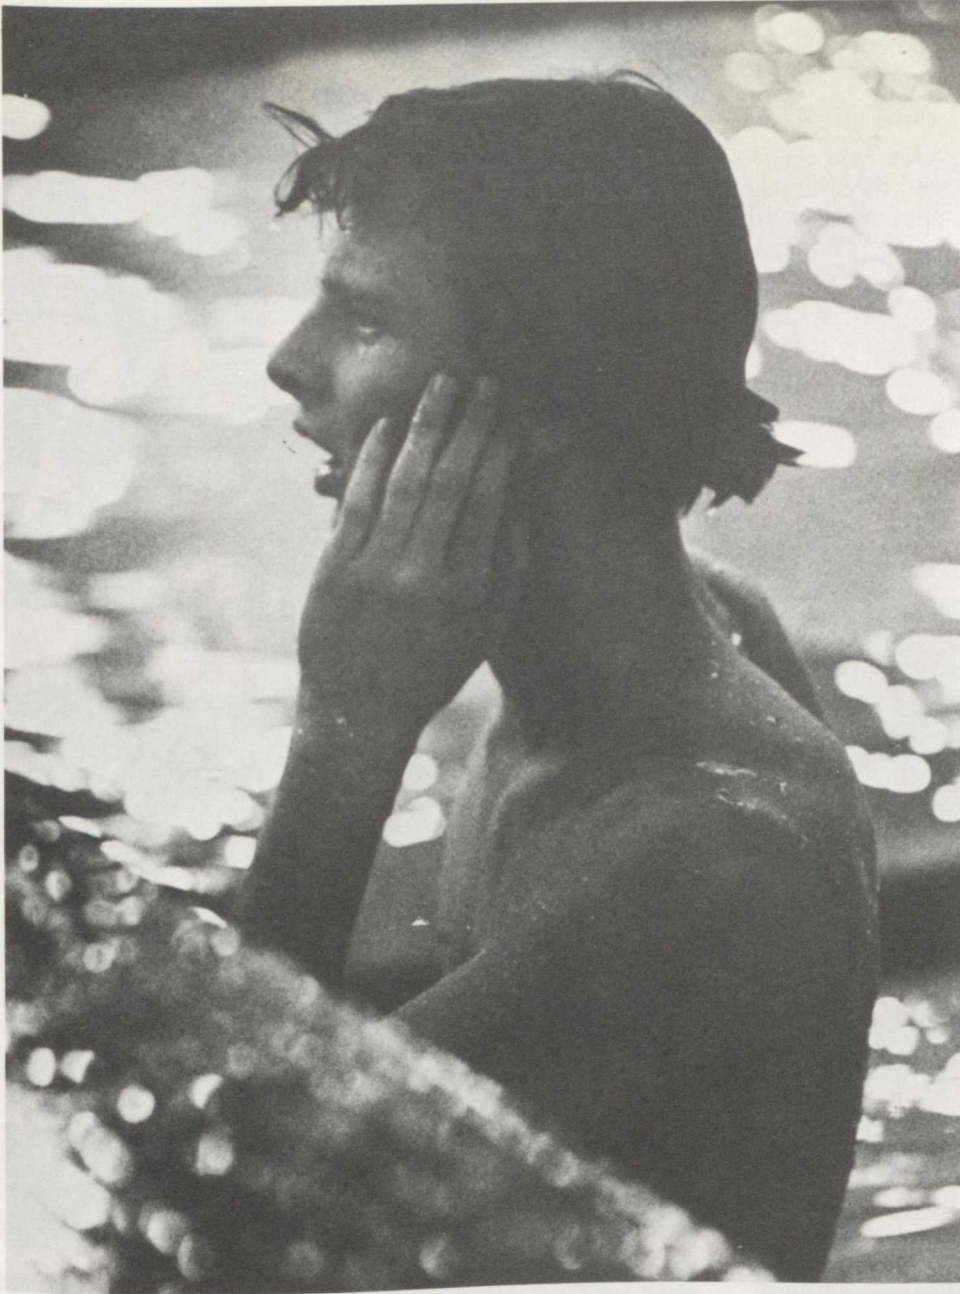

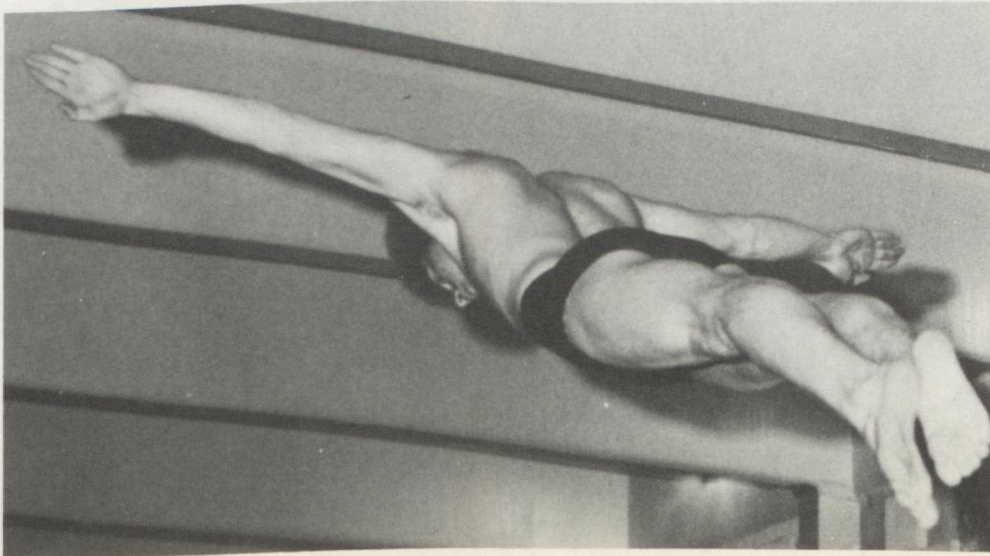

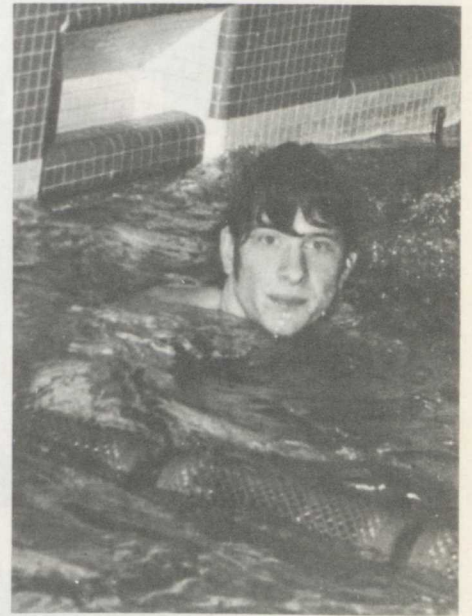

This year's swim team put forth a valiant effort to maintain the winning season of past years. Senior Bob Seibert, the team captain, showed outstanding sportsmanship, breaking records in freestyle events and qualifying for the State meet when he won the 50-free, and took third place in the 100-free at the District Meet. Diver Andy Shiplet also qualified for the State when he took third place in the District Meet. Senior Bob Schein placed sixth in the 100-free. The team, consisting of Seniors Dan Bellis, Mario Miranda, Doug McKee, Bob Schein, Andy Shiplet, Mike Sturges, Bob Seibert, Dave Germany; Juniors Brian Goodall, Eric Rosen, Chip Finefrock, Fred Yubero, Dwight Grassel, Bill Bagley; and Sophomore Jay Gaunt ended their season with a 9-4 winning record.

Bob Seibert—Most Valuable Swimmer.

WRESTLING

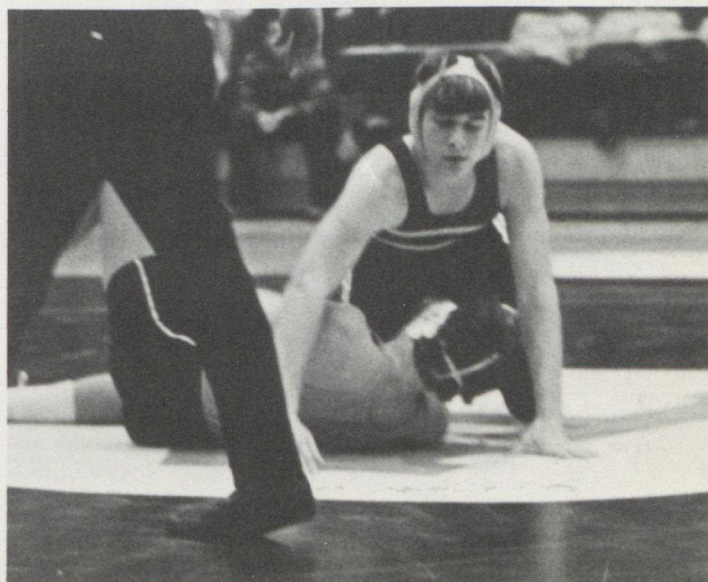

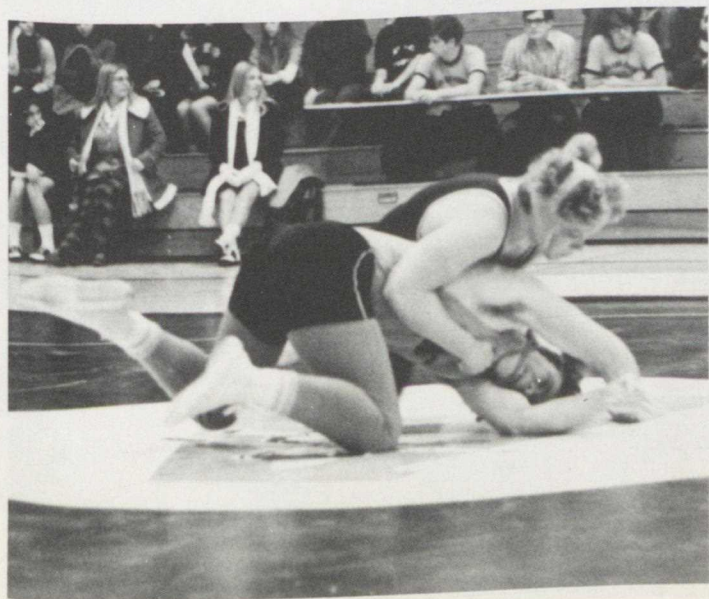

With only four returning lettermen, the Malabar wrestling team was relatively inexperienced this year. But new coach Doug Wilson brought with him a talented crop of youngsters to build for the future. Led by seniors John Amicone, Greg Gleisinger, and Mike Gilbert, and junior Craig Fox, the main asset of the grapplers was their tremendous team spirit. With most of the team returning next year, prospects appear very bright.

nik, Bob Waud, James Fisher, Marty Bricker, Scott Boals, Mark Shepherd, Scott Clarry, Rick Kuhn.

TRACK

With the return of ten varsity letter-winners, Coach Joe Romano has a solid nucleus from which to build his team this season. Depth, however, must come from a large corps of underclassmen, since only five lettermen are seniors. Those returning from last year's squad are sprinters Dexter Davis, Che-Che Mata, Tim Schmidt, and Spencer Stevens; hurdler Ralph Majors; shot-putter Mike Watson; pole-vaulter Dan Willard; discus thrower Mark Mathews; and distance men Andy Johnson and Jamie Brunk.

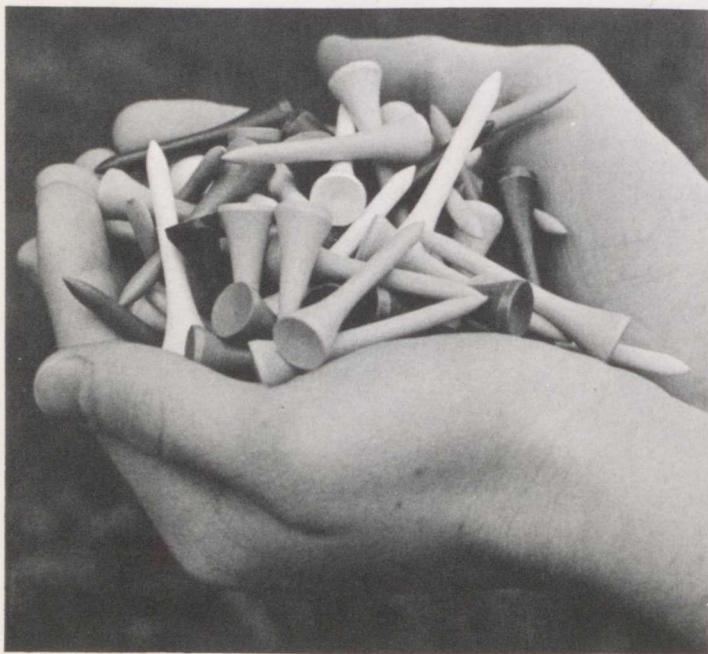

Several large meets adorn the thinclad schedule. They will participate in the Marion Night Relays and the Ontario Relays, as well as the Mansfield Mehock Relays. The trackmen will begin their season with the Ashland Indoor Relays followed by the Detroit News-Huron Relays in Ypsilanti, Michigan.

GOLF

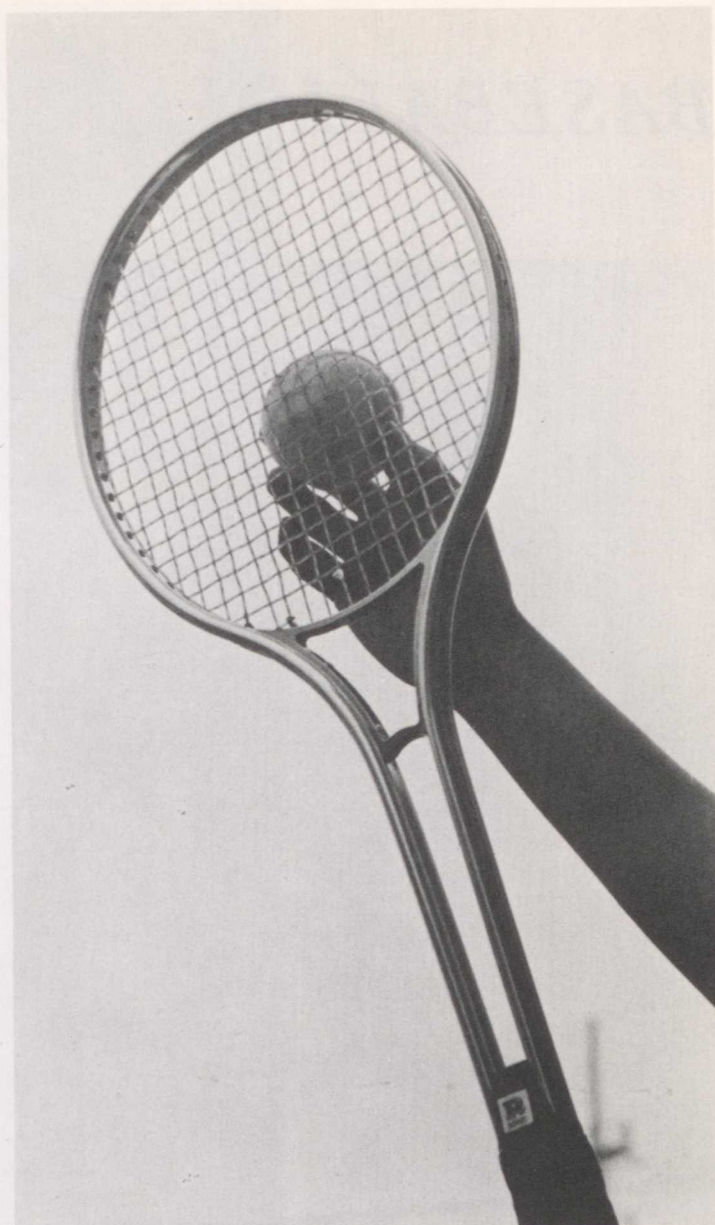

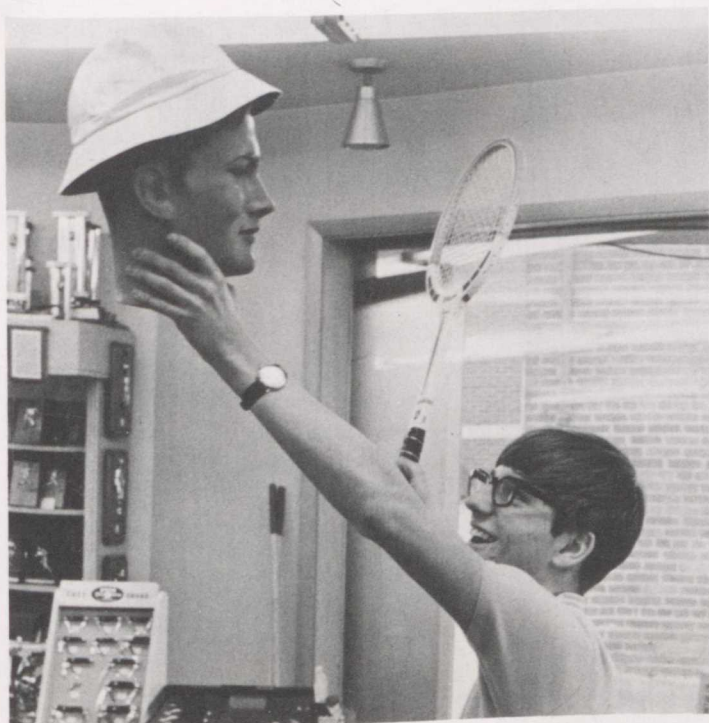

Bolstered by the return of five lettermen, the golf team's prospects appear very good. Along with Cardinal Conference champion Rodney Loesch, those back this year are Rodger Loesch, Phil Keyser, Tom Ransbottom, and Jeff Buell. The twelve team members have twenty matches, an invitational, and the sectional meet awaiting them. They begin the season with their spring trip to Ironton.

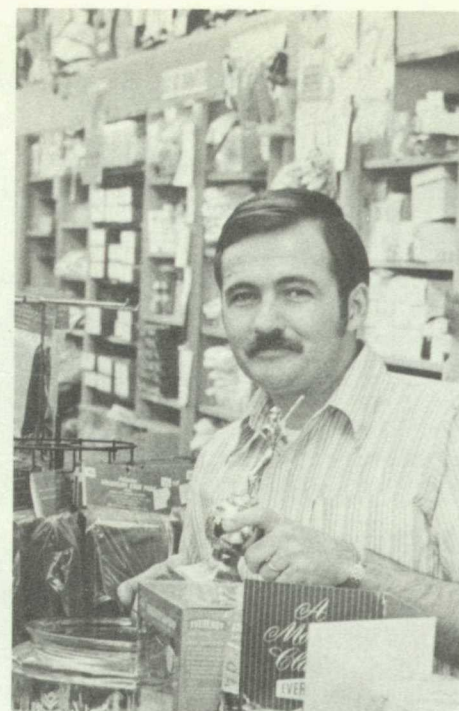

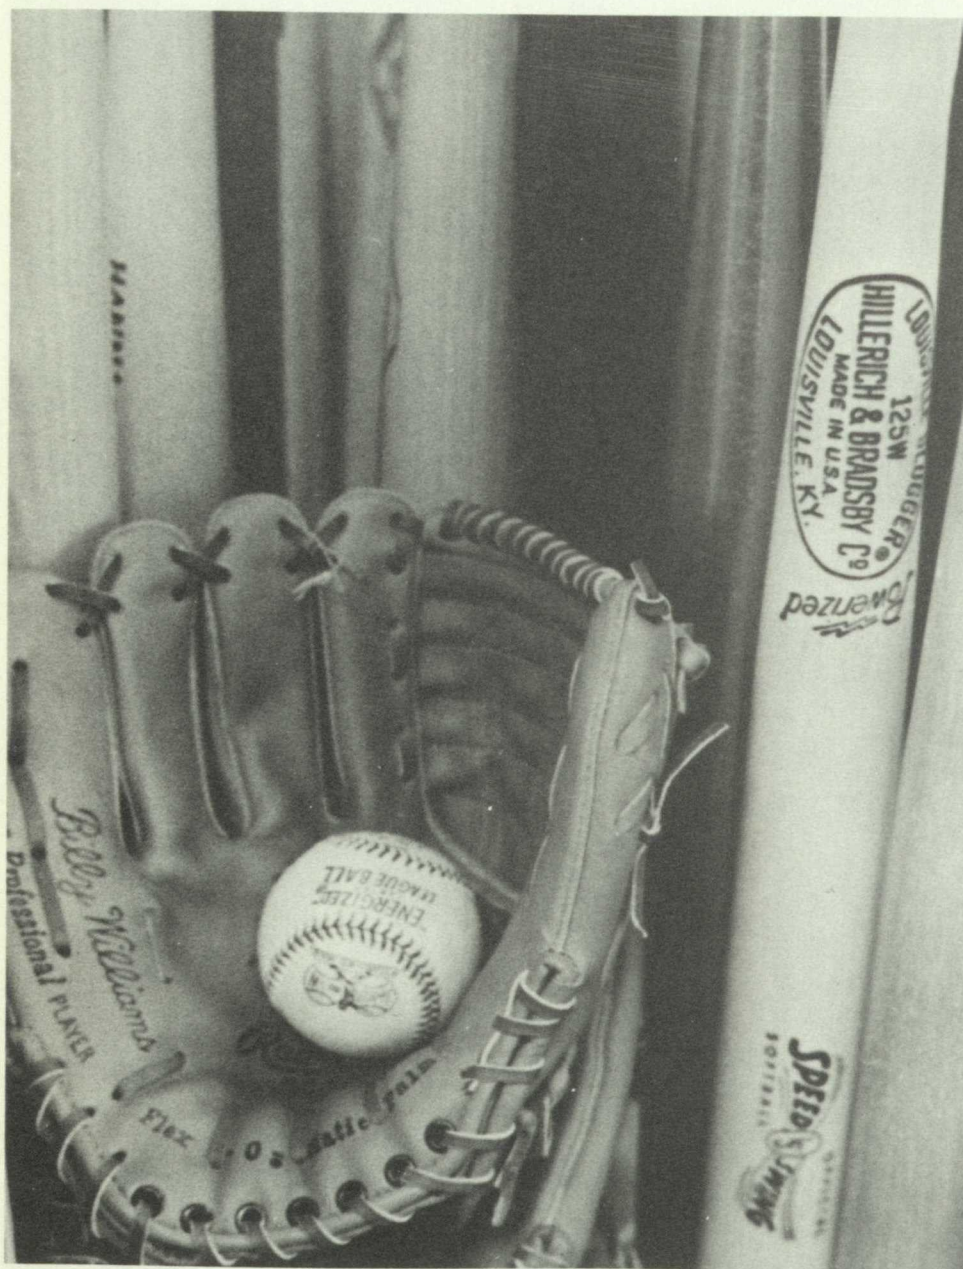

TENNIS

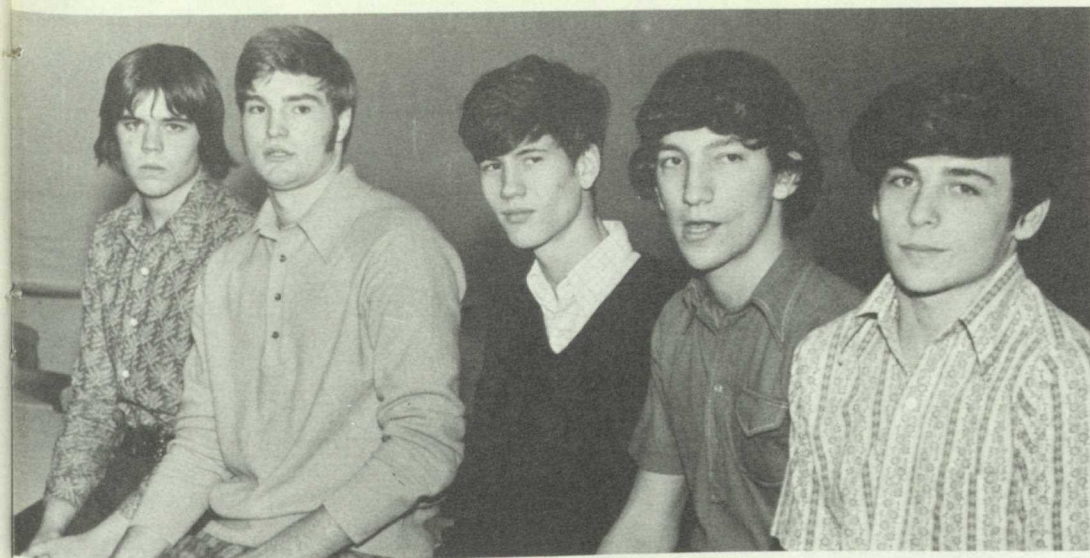

The Tennis team is looking forward to a great season, with the help of their coach, Jerry Lorentz. Soon the team will be outside practicing everyday; right now they are limited to inside meetings until the weather breaks. Returning from last year are Rick Hahn, Lee Bosko, Dave Kochheiser, Bob Jacobson, Dave Germany, Steve Jones, and Spencer Wiersma.

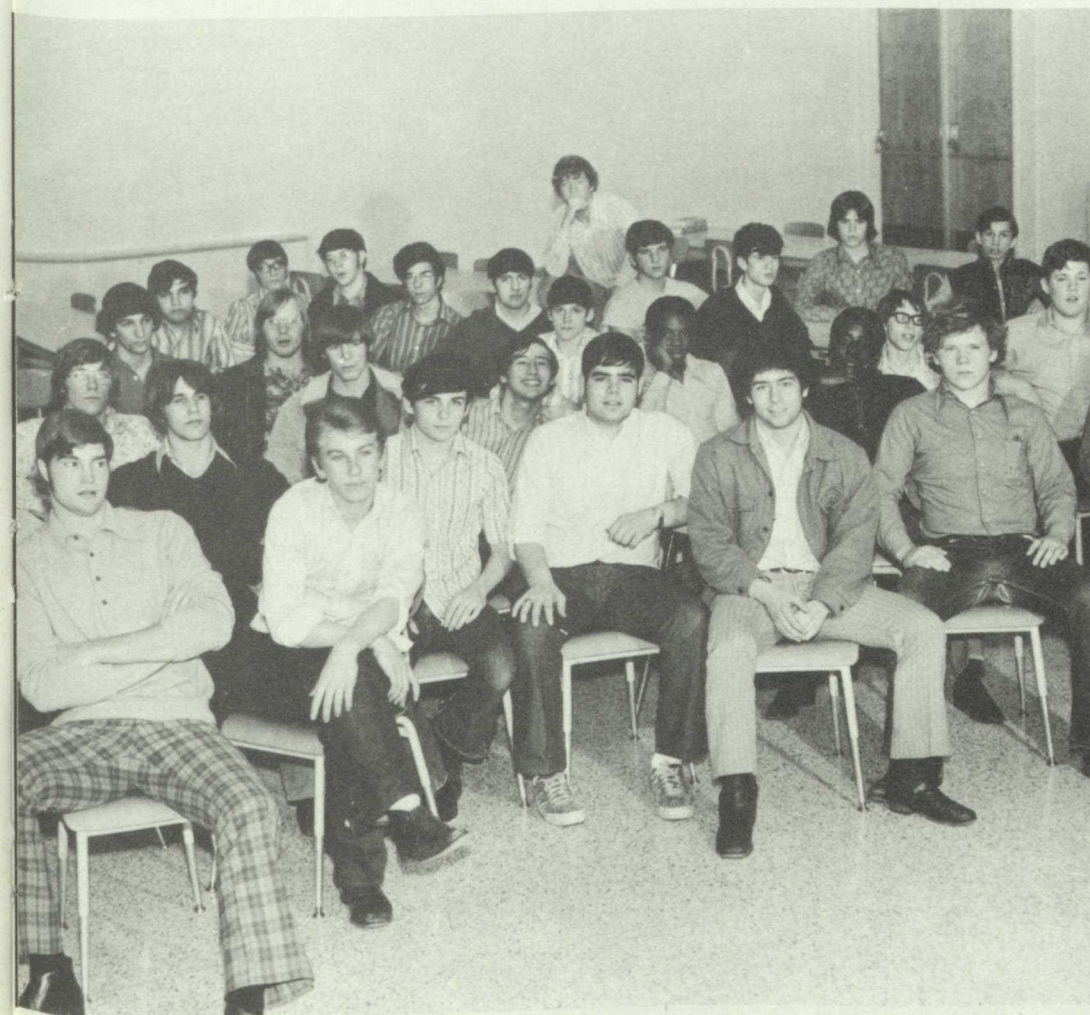

BASEBALL

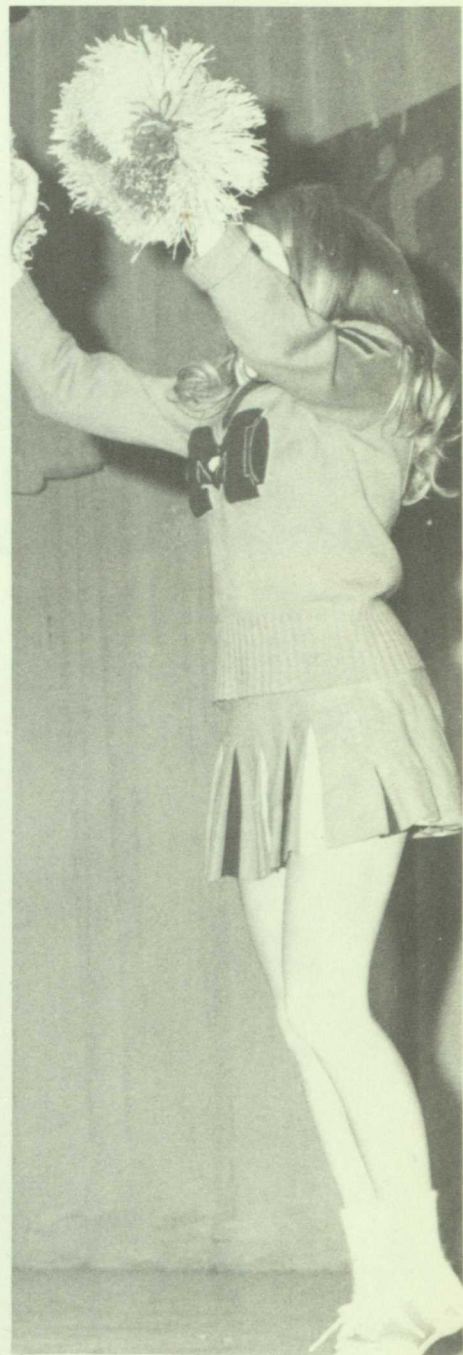

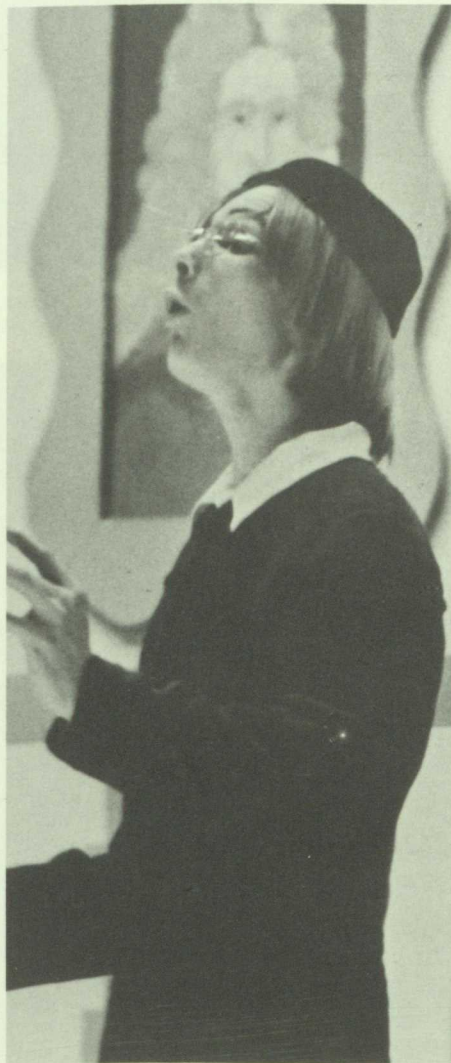

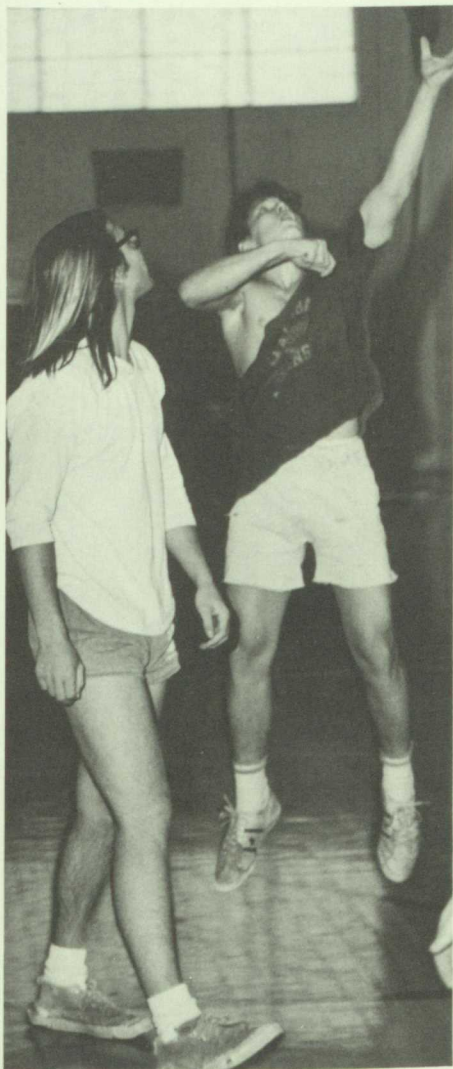

Coach Petit has high hopes for a great baseball season this year. With returning lettermen Chip Reese, Mike McGuire, Gus Sauter, Jerry Miller, John Amicone, and a number of juniors and newcomers, the team has great potential and anticipates a winning season. The team started practice in February, and will be cut to nineteen players later in the spring.

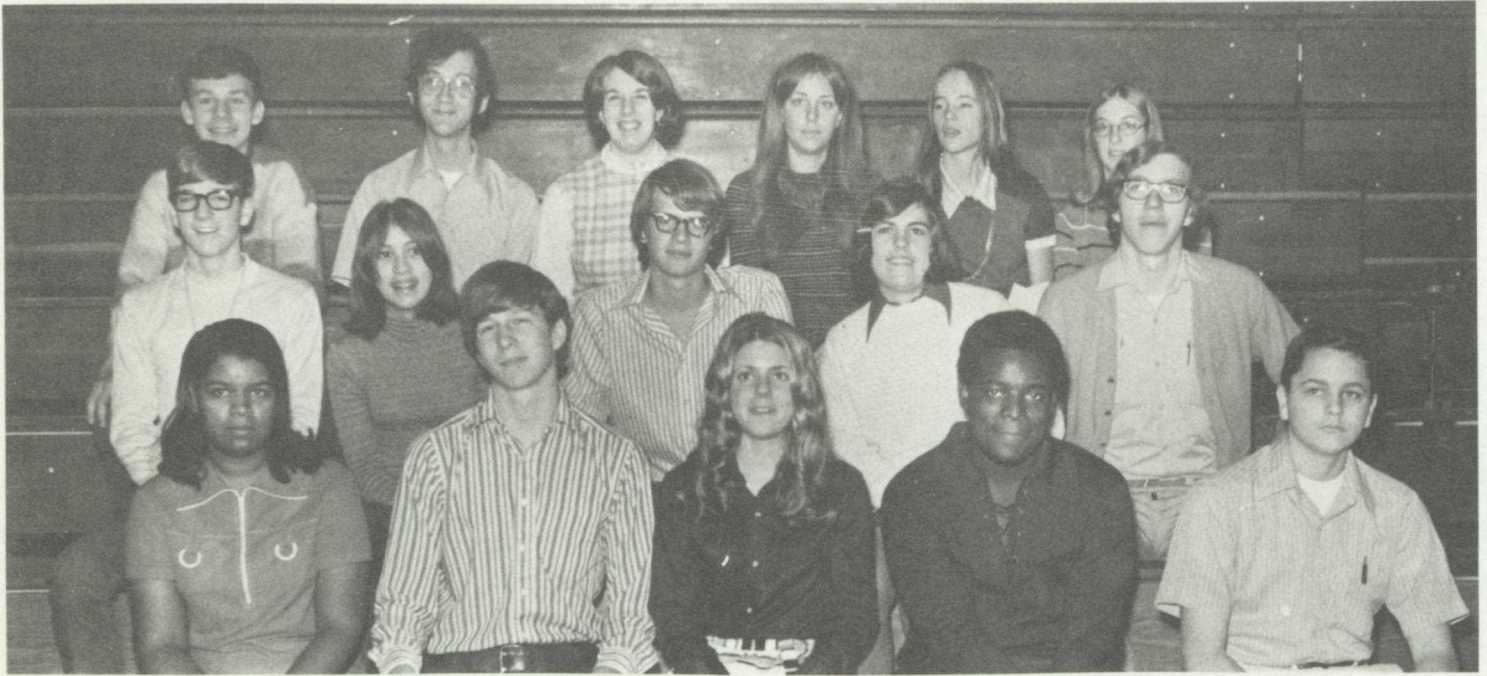

Returning Seniors: Chip Reese, Mike McGuire, Gus Sauter, Jerry Miller, John Amicone.

Exchange Student

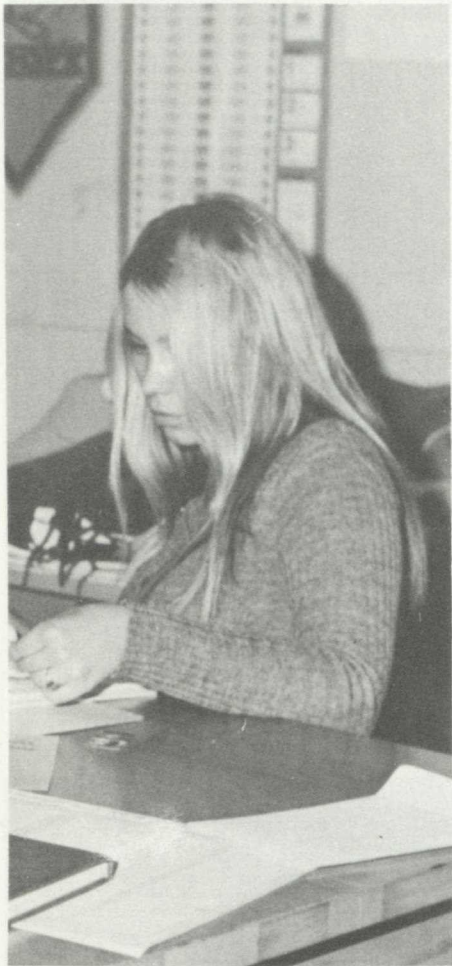

Elizabeth Friedli came a few days before school started with the Youth for Understanding program. With this program the exchange student learns about the American way of life by being a part of the family she is staying with. Her hostess is Pam Twitchell. A lot has been learned about her country and her way of life through conversation.

Both agree the most important thing they have discovered is that although they are from such distant places their day to day lives are remarkably similar. Both have benefitted from knowing each other and sharing each other's lives.

Row 2: Tim Schmidt, Becky Gernhardt, Marion Zaugg, Silvana Brian-ceschi, Phil Mugridge.

Holiday Noel

The fifth annual Holiday Noel was presented this year on December 2 and 3. Vocal Director was Mr. Jefferson, Instrumental Director Mr. Chiu-dioni and Associate Director Mr. Kramer.

The program was divided into three parts. The orchestra and choir joined forces to present "Magnificat in D." The choir also acted out "Amahal and the Night Visitors," an operetta. In the lead part of the mother was Cathy Blahnik, with a grade school boy, Michael Miller, casted as Amahal. Other supporting roles were played by Tim Hillier, Lee Strawn, Russ Wilder, and Don Brunn.

Last on the program was "Christmas in Stereo" casting the Concert Choir and Concert Orchestra.

Buddy Greco Selects . . . Les Femmes . . .

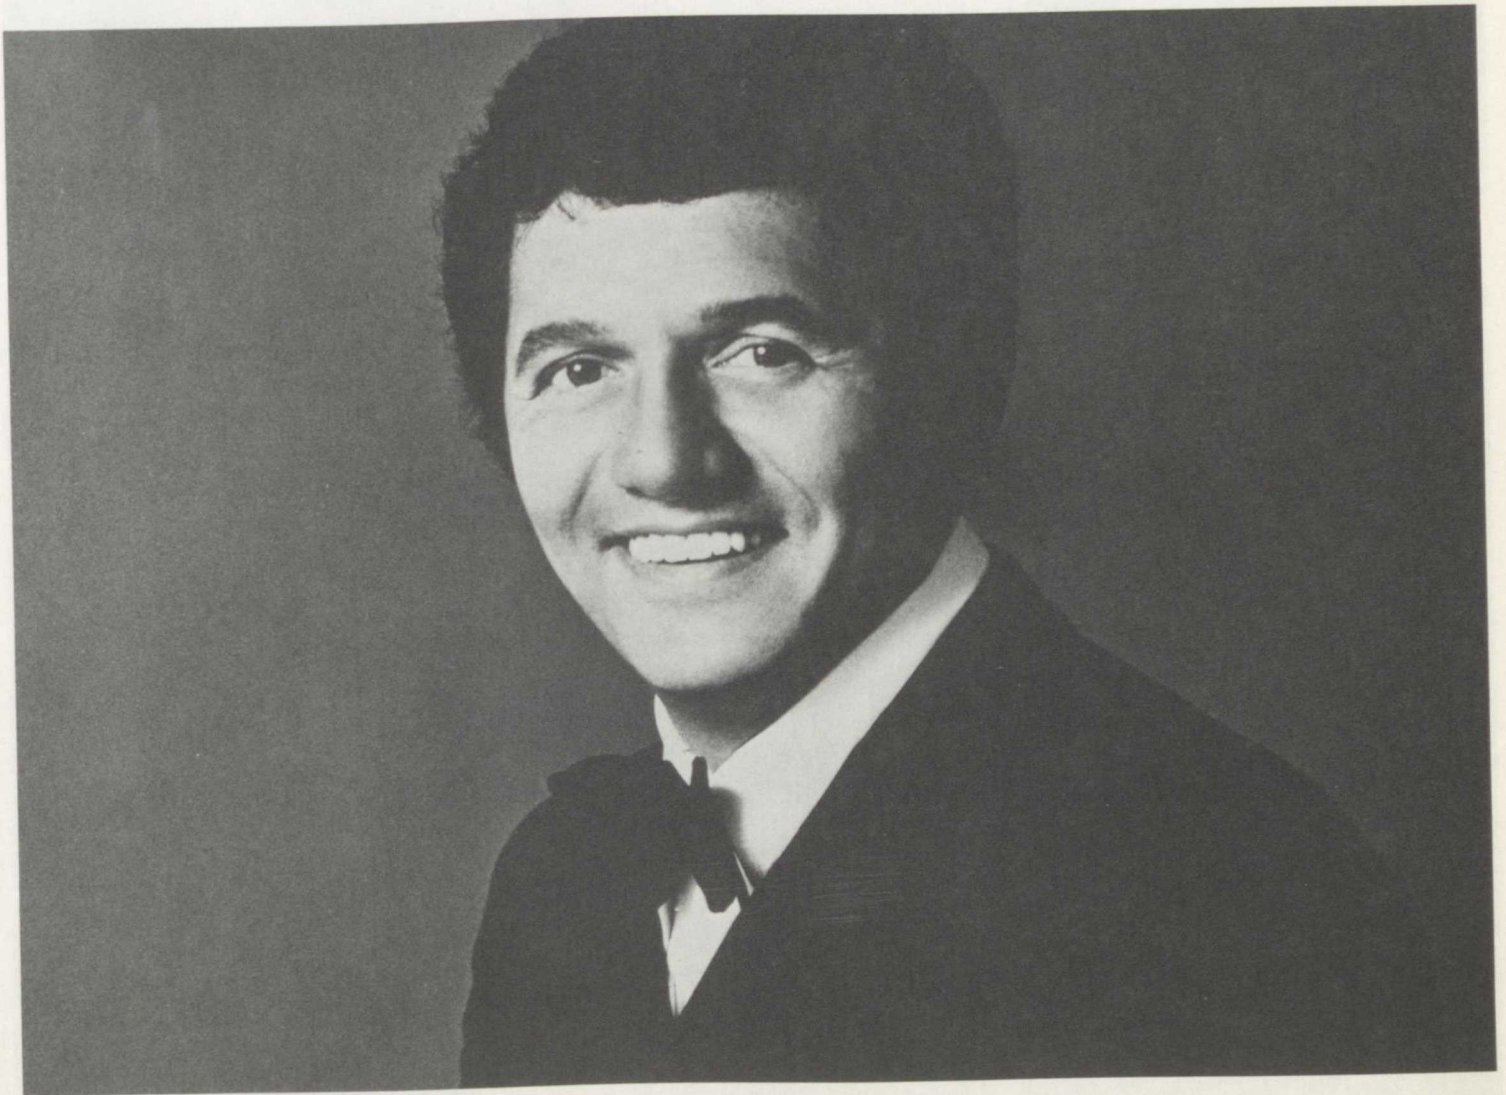

Mr. Greco,

The yearbook staff members of Malabar High School would very much appreciate your taking a few minutes of your time while you are in Mansfield at the Blue Dolphin to select what you consider to be the four most photogenic girls from their senior pictures. These four girls will be featured equally in the Les Femmes section of the Talon.

Thank you.

Beau Ellison

Editor

Buddy Greco, vocalist appearing at the Blue Dolphin after a long-run performance at The Sands. High in his professional achievements is a command performer for Queen Elizabeth.

Minnie and Lamonte Davison

HOMECOMING

"We've only just begun". . . . This was the theme of this year's 1972 Homecoming. It was a picturesque garden setting on stage as Queen Minnie Catchings and her court of Kim Cheney, Lynn Packer, and Diane Knight, took their places.

The court was dressed in the fall colors of the season, while the stage was decorated as garden scene to compliment the attire of the court.

That night in pouring rain, the Malabar football team played Ashland at Arlin field. Following the game was the Homecoming dance which featured "Cotton Mather."
